Fall-Winter 24-25

Rami Al Ali unveils his Autumn/Winter 2024-25 Ready to Wear collection, drawing inspiration from the enchanting Mirror of Matsuyama, a fabled artifact believed to reveal one's true essence. Honouring the enduring allure of Japanese culture and nature, Al Ali crafts a captivating narrative with a visionary 31-piece collection.

The lineup of whimsical yet elegant designs embodies a modern outlook, influenced by the profound symbolism of introspection. Seamlessly fusing traditional Japanese artistry with contemporary flair, each ensemble presents a distinctive fusion of legacy and modernity, accentuated by origami-inspired drapes and bows. From grand voluminous skirts and sleek mermaid cuts to refined separates and tailored tubinos paired with pencil midi skirts, each ensemble epitomizes the precision and meticulousness synonymous with the esteemed fashion house's sought-after allure.
